President Cutten,

Acadia University.

Dear President Cutten:

I am very sorry that you were unable to be here last Tuesday, particularly because you were detained through the illness of your daughter. I hope that your anxiety with regard to her is now over and that you will have some rest during the summer.

The Conference went off very well indeed, and I hope that we made headway in creating some community feeling between the various Universities of the Dominion.

It is difficult to find people who can teach English, but I will ask Professor Alexander whether he has any one in mind who could undertake this work for you.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

President G. B. Cutten,

Acadia University,

Wolfville, N.S.

Dear President Cutten:

I have been making inquiries with regard to some one who might teach English at Acadia next year. I regret however that I am unable to suggest any one. The only person whose name has been mentioned is Mr. Elmer L. Luck. He is unfortunately not in very good health, having recently got away from Germany, but his qualifications I understand are excellent. Whether he would take a temporary appointment of that kind I cannot say.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
